IN THE YOUNG AND RISING eneration, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye, and emaciated form, and the impossi-bility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some lepressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

January 28, 1868. MR. H. T. HELMBOLD-Dear Sir : Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a Drug Store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Bu-CHU. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present.
